WINE

Argentiara Bolgheri Supriore Toscana, Italy

4,580 ¥

Winemaker's Notes:

Intense and luminous shades of dark ruby red color. Very complex on the nose with fresh hints of woody berries and cherries, beside intense and spicy balsamic notes finishing with some roasted hints. The taste impresses because of the deep and velvet balance, beside a perfect interaction between freshness and tannins, which offer a long persistent, pleasant and elegant aftertaste. The wine shows harmonic but intriguing, because of the sapid and mineral aftertaste; well balanced between fineness, structure and the lingering finish.

Masclarelli Montepulciano D'ab Ruzzo Marina Cvetic Abruzzo Doc, Italy

4,180 ¥

Winemaker's Notes:

An absolutely delicious wine, the 2000 is laced with expressive dark red cherries, plums, spices and licorice, all supported by beautifully integrated French oak. There is a level of delineation and nuance that is unusual for such a rich wine.

Tenuta Sette Ponti Crognolo, Toscana, Italy

2,480 ¥

Winemaker's Notes:

Intense ruby red colour is the prelude to a full bouquet of ripe cherry and berries well blended with spicy notes that give class and complexity. Full bodied, well balanced and vibrant on the palate, well rounded tannins and depth.

Moorooroo Limited Release Shiraz Barossa Valley, Australia

4,380 ¥

Winemaker's Notes:

Creamy-textured, full-bodied and showing a bit of warmth, this is lush and lavishly oaked. Chocolate, vanilla and plum flavors play major roles, with earthier notes, hints of spice and tobacco in support.

Schild Estate Shiraz Barossa Valley, Australia

1,780 ¥

Winemaker's Notes:

#30 Wine Spectator Top 100 of 2012

Ruby red with purple hues. A nose of rich ripe blackcurrants, dark Morella cherries and clove spice. Plush, soft berry fruits and flavors of dark chocolate and mocha are supported by a fine tannin framework and hints of dry roasted nuts derived from some well balanced and integrated oak presence.

Chateau De Gironville, Cru Bourgeois, Haut-medoc, Bordeaux, France

2,380 ¥

Winemaker's Notes:

A dark ruby red and purple robe, with a lot of aromas of raspberries and blackberries. Soft on the palate, with a good dose of lovely, supple tannins. A well rounded and very pleasant finish.

Chateau Fontesteuau, Cru Bourgeois, Haut-medoc Bordeaux, France

2,180 ¥

Winemaker's Notes:

Fontesteuau covers over 26 ha of gravelly, calcified soil, ideal for growing the perfect Medoc grapes, which give this wine its full-bodied rich taste and reputation. 2009 was an exceptional vintage, with a long hot summer. The wine is colourful, with exuberant aromas of ripe cherries and blackcurrant plus lovely dense and fine tannins. A deep and generous wine.

Andeluna Altitud Malbec
Mendoza, Argentina

1,380 ¥

Winemaker's Note:

The Andeluna Altitud Malbec has an intense red color with violet hues. Aromas of figs and plums. Notes of vanilla, coffee and chocolate granted by its ageing in French oak barrels. Sweet in mouth with soft tannins and long velvety finish.

Bemarco Malbec
Mendoza, Argentina

1,280 ¥

Winemaker's Note:

Beautiful deep purple color with perfumed aromas of ripe red fruits and roasted coffee beans. It is lush, fullbodied and penetrating on the palate with loads of chewy, currant jam flavors, bright acidity, and a touch of grip on the almost savory finish. This wine really unfolds with some air so try not to slurp it down in a rush, and it shows why the Argentine people are in love with Malbec. Some Bonarda was blended in for greater complexity and to achieve better balance.

Le Petit Chat-en-Oeuf Rouge (185 ml)

340 ¥

Winemaker's Note:

Nose of fresh mouth watering red berries. Rich, juicy and ripe berry fruit flavours (cherries, strawberries), a touch of sweetness, soft tannins and a subtle twist of spice. Super easy to drink and absolutely fabulous.
